

Fruit of the Spirit Workbook

A Christian Reflection & Growth Journal

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control."

What Are the Fruits of the Spirit?

The Fruits of the Spirit are qualities produced in believers through a relationship with God and guidance from the Holy Spirit. They reflect His character in us.

Love — choosing compassion and putting others first

Joy — finding strength and happiness in God

Peace — trusting God even during uncertainty

Patience — waiting with grace and faith

Kindness — showing care and compassion to others

Goodness — living with integrity and godly character

Faithfulness — remaining loyal and committed to God

Gentleness — responding with humility and grace

Self-Control — honoring God through disciplined choices

Which fruit do I need God to grow in me most right now?

This Week God Is Teaching Me...

Fruitful Life Prayer

Heavenly Father, I come before You today, grateful for Your love and mercy. I ask for the guidance of Your Holy Spirit to transform my heart. Lord, please grow spiritual fruit in my daily life. Cultivate in me a deeper capacity to love others as Christ loves. In pience, let me wait with grace; in kindness, let me act with compassion. Strengthen my self-control to honor You. Mold me more and more into Your likeness, so that I may reflect Your character. Teach me to walk in perfect peace and steadfast faithfulness, trusting You completely in all circumstances. May my everyday life be a witness of Your goodness and produce good fruit for Your glory. Amen.

Faith Declarations

I choose love.
